SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 397
By Trail

A RESOLUTION To honor and recognize Andrew Coleman, 2001
Salutatorian of Cascade High School.

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that the members of this legislative body should honor those students who, through their natural talents and unwavering commitment to academic excellence, have distinguished themselves in the classroom; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Coleman is most assuredly one such exceptional student who is richly deserving of this legislative body's commendation; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Coleman's persistence and hard work have earned him recognition as the Salutatorian of the 2001 graduating class at Cascade High School; and

WHEREAS, Through industrious study, steady composure during examinations, and untiring commitment of time and talent, he has achieved extraordinary academic success and has joined the ranks of the best and brightest students in our great State and Nation; and

WHEREAS, In his remarkable high school career, Andrew has earned a commendable 3.864 grade point average; and

WHEREAS, A well-rounded individual and a sterling scholar, Andrew Coleman has been a valuable participant in many programs and clubs, including the National Honor Society, Chess Club, which he served as Ruler, and the Young Democrats, which he served as President; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Coleman's dedication to academic excellence epitomizes the spirit and commitment that are characteristic of a true Tennessean; and

WHEREAS, In an age where the youth of our country face great challenges, we can proudly state, without equivocation, that Andrew represents all that is good in our young people today; and

WHEREAS, His significant achievement is a great source of pride for his parents, Curt and Gina McClain, his school, and his community; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Coleman's display of intellectual aptitude and ambition as a student at Cascade High School surely bodes well for his future success; awarded an academic scholarship, he will be attending Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, where he plans on majoring in computer science; and

WHEREAS, Andrew Coleman's dedication to excellence is clearly deserving of the respect, admiration, and commendation of this legislative body; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we hereby honor 2001 Cascade High School Salutatorian, Andrew Coleman on his impressive academic achievement, and extend to him our best wishes for a happy, successful future.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
